

Appeal to Parent

Dear Parents,

Education of the child is the joint responsibility of both of us. To undertake this responsibility there is a need of perfect harmony and understanding. This Communication booklet will provide necessary link between us.

Please go through the booklet and fill up the desired information. These information are of vital use in the best interest of the child. Please comply with the instruction regarding regularity, dress, books, discipline, personal hygiene and dues etc.

Please direct your child to bring this booklet to the school on all working days.

I hope this communication Booklet will establish a cordial relation in sharing this joint responsibility. Looking forward for your sincere co-operation.