

PERSONALITY DEVELOPMENT

The school gives equal importance to personality development of students. So that they can develop a positive approach towards life, can think independently, communicate effectively and learn to cope with stress in order to bring all round development of personality of students.